

Latest Sales Numbers

	2018	2019	2020	2021
January	$1,000	$11,642	$135,525	$1,577,722
February	$1,250	$14,552	$169,407	$1,972,152
March	$1,563	$18,190	$211,758	$2,465,190
April	$1,953	$22,737	$264,698	$3,081,488
May	$2,441	$28,422	$330,872	$3,851,860
June	$3,052	$35,527	$413,590	$4,814,825
July	$3,815	$44,409	$516,988	$6,018,531
August	$4,768	$55,511	$646,235	$7,523,164
September	$5,960	$69,389	$807,794	$9,403,955
October	$7,451	$86,736	$1,009,742	$11,754,944
December	$9,313	$108,420	$1,262,177	$14,693,679
Totals	$42,566	$495,535	$5,768,786	$67,157,510

Executive Summary

- Sales up dramatically year-over-year.
- Most successful sales campaign was the Labor Day promotion.
- Least successful was the Christmas sales event.
  - However, this was due to inventory problems.
  - Resellers were very happy with their profits but not enough product was available for sale.
- The sleeper hit was the Back to School promotion which was very low cost but resulted in a surprising sales surge.
  - We're currently reviewing all academic sales processes.
  - We're also talking with regional school boards about their budget cycles.

